THEOLOGY FOR EDUCATION PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

HOW DO WE APPROACH THE ACT OF TEACHING IN A WAY THAT'S REFLECTIVE OF THE GOSPEL?

Equip yourself to think theologically about current pressing issues in New Zealand education.

Join Laidlaw's School of Education team for the first of two courses that make up the Postgraduate Certificate in Theology (Theology for Education), and explore what faith and spirituality looks like in Aotearoa and the West.

Take the opportunity to discuss how this should direct our teaching practice and think through the way culture is driving key conversations.

"I have been in Christian Education for twenty years, and what I really appreciated about this course was its ability to help me recognise the current pressures and questions that our students have ... this is content that would be

VALUABLE FOR ANYONE WORKING IN CHRISTIAN EDUCATION"

Teresa, Head of Middle School

“THIS COURSE HAS ENLIGHTENED MY THINKING

allowing me to add value to conversations about education and the culture we are working with today.”

Christine, Principal
